1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 A fair, transparent and equitable tax administration system will enhance public confidence in the tax system. Compliance with tax laws must be strictly enforced and tax offences such as non-compliance and tax evasion should be penalized in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act 1967 (ITA).
- 1.2 Under the Self Assessment System, tax audit is a primary activity of the Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia (IRBM). It is aimed at enhancing voluntary compliance with the tax laws and regulations. A taxpayer can be selected for an audit at any time. However, it does not necessarily mean that a taxpayer who is selected for an audit has committed an offence.
- 1.3 This framework is issued by IRBM to ensure that tax audit is carried out in a fair, transparent and impartial manner. This framework outlines the rights and responsibilities of audit officers, taxpayers and tax agents in respect of a tax audit. Generally, this framework aims to:
- 1.3.1 Assist audit officers to carry out their tasks efficiently and effectively; and
 - 1.3.2 Assist taxpayers in fulfilling their obligations.

2. STATUTORY PROVISIONS

- 2.1 The provisions of the ITA which are applicable to tax audits are as follows:
- 2.1.1 Section 78 : Power to call for specific returns and production of books.

- 2.1.6 Section 99 : Right of appeal.
 - 2.1.7 Section 100 : Extension of time for appeal.
 - 2.1.8 Section 101 : Review by Director General
 - 2.1.9 Section 102 : Disposal of appeals.
 - 2.1.10 Section 112 : Failure to furnish return or give notice of chargeability
 - 2.1.11 Section 113 : Incorrect returns.

 - 2.1.17 Section 140 : Power to disregard certain transactions.
 - 2.1.18 Section 141 : Powers regarding certain transactions by non-residents.
- 2.2 Statutory provisions relating to tax audit are not limited to the provisions cited above. Statutory provisions also include other provisions in the ITA, Real Property Gains Tax Act 1976, Petroleum (Income Tax) Act 1967, Promotion of Investments Act 1986, Stamp Act 1949, Labuan Offshore Business Activity Tax Act 1990 and other acts administered by IRBM.

3. WHAT IS A TAX AUDIT

- 3.1 A tax audit is an examination of a taxpayer's business records and financial affairs to ascertain that the amount of tax due should be reported and paid are in accordance with tax laws and regulations. IRBM carries out two (2) types of audit, namely desk audit and field audit.

3.1.1 Desk Audit

3.1.1.1 A desk audit is held at the IRBM's office. Desk audits are normally concerned with straightforward issues or tax adjustments which are easily dealt with via correspondence. A taxpayer may be called for an interview at IRBM's office if further information is required.

3.1.1.2 Generally, a desk audit involves checking all information on income and expenses as well as various types of claims made by a taxpayer in his income tax return.

3.1.1.3 Specific desk audit cases can be referred for field audit action. Under such circumstances, the taxpayer will be informed through a field audit notification letter as part of the normal process of commencing the field audit.

3.1.2 Field Audit

A field audit is one that takes place at a taxpayer's premise. It involves the examination of the taxpayer's business records. In the case of a sole-proprietorship or partnership, if the taxpayer's business records are incomplete it may involve the examination of non-business records such as personal bank statements, etc. A taxpayer will be given notice prior to a field audit.

3.2 In general, this tax audit framework is applicable to both types of audit, namely desk audit and field audit with the exception of visit to premises and examination of records which are only applicable to field audit.

4. OBJECTIVE OF TAX AUDIT

4.1 The main objective of tax audit is to encourage voluntary compliance with the tax laws and regulations and to ensure that a higher tax compliance rate is achieved under the Self Assessment System. In this regard, the audit officer is required to ensure that the correct amount of income is reported and the right amount of tax is paid in accordance with the tax laws and regulations.

- 4.2 For the purpose of achieving voluntary compliance, the tax audit activity is one of the measures undertaken by IRBM to educate and create awareness of taxpayers towards their rights and responsibilities under the provisions of the ITA.

5. YEARS OF ASSESSMENT COVERED

- 5.1 Generally, a tax audit may cover a period of one to three years of assessment as determined in accordance with the audit focus.
- 5.2 However, the years of assessment to be covered in a tax audit may extend beyond the period as stated in paragraph 5.1 depending on the issues identified during an audit.

6. SELECTION OF CASES

- 6.1 Cases for audit are selected through the computer system based on risk analysis criteria. However, the selection of audit cases is not confined to the selection by the computerized system only, as cases can also be selected based on information received from various sources.
- 6.2 Audit cases are selected in the following manner:
- 6.2.1 Selection based on risk analysis;
 - 6.2.2 Information received from third party;
 - 6.2.3 Selection based on specific industries;
 - 6.2.4 Selection based on specific issues for a certain group of taxpayers; and
 - 6.2.5 Selection based on location, etc.

7. HOW A TAX AUDIT IS CARRIED OUT

7.1 Audit Venue

- 7.1.1 A desk audit is carried out at the IRBM's office whereas a field audit is carried out at the taxpayer's business premise.

- 7.1.2 Where the business premises are not suitable, the taxpayer may suggest a suitable alternative for IRBM's agreement.

7.2 Commencement of an Audit

- 7.2.1 A taxpayer who is selected for an audit will be notified by IRBM through a letter of notification of audit. The period between the date of notification of audit and the audit visit is 14 days. However, with the agreement of the taxpayer, a shorter period of notification may be fixed by IRBM. A letter confirming the visit is usually preceded by a phone call.
- 7.2.2 A taxpayer may request for the audit visit to be deferred due to unavoidable circumstances and reasonable grounds.
- 7.2.3 Other than the intended date of the visit, the letter will indicate the records that should be made available for audit, the years of assessment to be audited and the names of audit officers who will conduct the audit as well as the expected timeframe required for the audit visit.
- 7.2.4 A taxpayer may contact the Branch Audit Manager or Branch Director of IRBM for the purpose of confirming the audit visit.

7.3 The Visit

- 7.3.1 An audit visit is only applicable to the field audit activity. The audit normally starts off with an interview.
- 7.3.2 The purpose of an interview is to enable the audit officers to meet the taxpayer, obtain an overview of the taxpayer's business activity and to discuss the audit.
- 7.3.3 The taxpayer will be asked to explain his business activities, accounting and record keeping system. During the audit process, the person responsible for the handling of taxpayer's business records will also be interviewed.

7.4 Examination of Records

- 7.4.1 During the course of an audit, the audit officer should be allowed to examine all business records and to inspect stock and equipments physically for verification of the claims made. Records pertaining to the years of assessment which are already time barred will not be examined.

- 7.4.2 In certain circumstances, there may be a need to examine records other than business records where it involves the audit of sole-proprietorships and partnerships.
- 7.4.3 The audit officer will not search for or take possession of any record. Examination of records will only be carried out at the taxpayer's business premises. If it is deemed necessary, the audit officer should be allowed to make copies of relevant documents.
- 7.4.4 However, under circumstances where the work place provided by the taxpayer is not suitable or conducive to carry out the audit or where copier facility is not available, the audit officers, with the consent of the taxpayer, may obtain records for examination at the IRBM's office. In such a case, the documents will be returned to the taxpayer once the examination is done.
- 7.4.5 The documents and records to be taken back will be listed and the taxpayer may check the documents and records and make a copy of the list, if necessary.
- 7.4.6 Where records and books of accounts are kept in electronic form, hard copies of such records should be made available for examination. If at the time of the audit visit, the taxpayer is unable to provide the hard copies for examination, the taxpayer should facilitate and assist the audit officers to access the computer system and copy the electronic records onto tapes, disks or diskettes.
- 7.4.7 The audit officers will examine all documents and records necessary to ascertain that the correct amount of income has been reported. Basically, records consists of:
